Engineering Enterprises, Inc. Expands Team with five new hires

Engineering Enterprises, Inc. (EEI), a leading civil engineering and land surveying firm, is proud to announce the hiring of five talented new team members. This expansion reinforces EEI's commitment to growth and excellence in providing outstanding service to every client every day.

The new hires include Cornelio Estrella, Charlie Gambs, Glenn Fowler, Angela Driessen, and Sarah Lasfalk.

"We are thrilled to welcome Cornelio, Charlie, Glenn, Angela, and Sarah to our team as we near the end of our 50th anniversary year," said Brad Sanderson, PE, Chief Operating Officer / President. "Each of them will be instrumental in our continued delivery of innovative solutions and exceptional service to our clients."

These new hires represent our ongoing investment in the future as we enter the next 50 years. We remain committed to fostering talent and pushing the boundaries of innovation in civil engineering and land surveying.

The addition of Cornelio Estrella, EI, as a new project engineer further bolsters our ability to manage complex projects from conception to completion. Estrella is a graduate of the Illinois Institute of Technology with a B.S. in Civil Engineering with Environmental specialization who will be working in our Municipal Group.

The survey technician, Charlie Gambs, strengthens our land surveying capabilities. Gambs is a graduate of North Central College with a BBA in Business Administration and Management.

The construction technician, Glenn Fowler, will add valuable on-site expertise and is currently attending Waubensee Community College working towards a B.S. in Civil Engineering.

The two new CAD technicians, Angela Driessen and Sarah Lasfalk, bring a combined 25-plus years of experience in computer-aided design, enhancing the firm's capacity for precise and efficient project design.

Angela Driessen holds her B.S. in Civil Engineering from Universidad Pontificia Bolivarian and her M.S. in Industrial and Systems Engineering from Northern Illinois University.

Sarah Lasfalk graduated from the College of DuPage with an Associate in Art and also has an Architectural 2D CAD Certificate.
